

ENKHBOLD Vorshilov

Born: 1965, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia

Education:

- PhD in International economics at the National University of Mongolia (2013)
- Master degree (B.Sc & M.Sc) at the Technical University of Vladimir, Russia (1984-1989)

Career:

- Director-General, Foreign Trade and Economic Cooperation Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Mongolia (Since August 2016)
- Independent consultant (Trade & Investment policies) (2013-2016)
- “Ambassador at Large” responsible for Japan-Mongolia Economic Partnership Agreement, Ministry of Foreign Affairs & Trade of Mongolia (2012)
- Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Mongolia to India and Sri-Lanka (2008 - 2011)
- Director-General, Trade Policy and Economic Cooperation Department, Ministry of Trade and Industry of Mongolia (2004-2008)
- Second Secretary, Embassy of Mongolia in Geneva, Switzerland (2001-2004)
- WTO Senior expert, Foreign Trade and Economic Cooperation Department at the Ministry of External Affairs of Mongolia (1999-2001)
- Head of Investment promotion division of the Foreign Investment and Foreign Trade Agency (FIFTA) of Mongolia (1996-1999)
- Economic officer, Mongolian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (1991-1996)
- Research fellow at the Institute of Renewable Energy of Mongolia (1989-1991)

Languages:

- English, Russian